PRELIMINARY AMENDMENT IN SUPPORT OF RCE
Introductory Comments

This Preliminary Amendment is now filed to create an RCE patent application following final rejection, on June 3, 2003, of all claims (4-6, inclusive) in the immediate predecessor U.S. Patent Application. By this Preliminary Amendment, claims 5 and 6 are cancelled without prejudice, and claim 4 is amended.

Additionally, accompanying this Preliminary Amendment, and discussed briefly in the Remarks section hereinbelow, are photocopies of pages of an independent-laboratory test report generated in response to applicants' request for certain comparative shock-absorbing tests designed to help evaluate the observed advantageous performance of a cushioning insole made in accordance with the present invention. This two-page, paginated report is labeled "Test Report".
